

Kathleen C. Kirk Becomes Bride of Lieut. J. H. Wright

Reception Follows Morning Rites At St. Martin's

A wedding of great interest to Washington where both the bride and bridegroom's families are well known was that which took place yesterday morning at 10 o'clock in St. Martin's Church of Miss Kathleen Cecelia Kirk to Lieut. (j.g.) John Herbert Wright, U.S.N. The Rev. James P. Grace, assistant pastor of St. Anthony's Church, in which the two young people are parishioners, performed the ceremony and celebrated the nuptial mass.

The former Miss Kirk is the daughter of Harry J. Kirk, president of the National Catholic Evidence Guild Conference, and Mrs. Kirk, former president of the Washington Woman's Retreat League and of St. Anthony's Sodality. Lieutenant Wright is the son of Dr. Herbert Wright, professor of international law and head of the department of politics at Catholic University, and Mrs. Wright. Dr. Wright previously held a post with the State Department and served as special lecturer in the postgraduate school of the United States Naval Academy.

The bride, who attended Dunbarton College, was in a blue chiffon velvet suit with which she wore dubonnet accessories and a corsage of white Orchids.

Her sister, Miss Lucille Frances Kirk, who served as her maid of honor and only attendant, was in maroon velveteen with green accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias. Thomas Blakeney Wright was his brother's best man, and Thomas M. Walsh, Kirk Krutsch, a cousin of the bride, and Louis G. Andrews were the ushers.

Following the reception at the Wardman Park Hotel, Lieutenant and Mrs. Wright left by plane for a brief wedding trip. When Lieutenant Wright rejoins his ship, the bride will return to the Capital to make her home with her parents here.

The bridegroom is an alumnus of Columbia Preparatory School and the United States Naval Academy.

The nuptial music at the ceremony was furnished by the choir of St. Paul's College under the direction of John F. Ritzius, C.S.P.; and among the priests in the sanctuary in addition to the officiating clergyman were the Rev. Dr. John J. Coady, the Rt. Rev. P. McAdams, Rev. Louis F. Miltenberger and Rev. E. Vincent Mooney, C.S.P.
